Nature on the skin

Man, Nature and Wei Qi Rituals

Once upon a time Man lived in a mutually beneficial relationship with Nature, in perfect harmony with the sky, the earth and the energy cycles of the entire cosmos. He knew its infinite wisdom and respected its rules. Nature, his great ally, has always made all its generous resources available, ensuring the survival of all living species.

Roots, leaves, bark or flowers, the raw materials at the basis of ancient rituals, are the same used today by SALIN de BIOSEL in its 4 original Wei Qi Rituals for rebalanced physical wellbeing and serenity of spirit.

The scents of Nature speak to us

What are you? Root, leaf, bark or flower? You will find out with an olfactory test performed with magical aromatic plant notes. Everything that comes into contact with our sense of smell is a virtual biochemical mediator for the brain and has the ability to reawaken our most intimate emotions, revealing precise information about our psycho-physical state at that moment. So let yourself be guided by your sense of smell and find out which Wei Qi Ritual is the right one for you.

Flowers to dream, to create

Leaves to open up to others and communicate with them

Bark to protect yourself, to increase perception

Roots to reinforce your identity, to ground yourself

Your space in nature

Wei Qi Rituals and the intimate contact established between you and Nature will help you find your space, your boundaries, your true essence. Pure plant powder and milk will blend with your skin as a fluid, light massage reawakens your senses and eliminates tension.

A soft, pure plant fibre sheet will envelope your body as if in a cradle in which to let yourself go, surrounded by the fragrances of Nature chosen by your sense of smell. Accompanied by magical melodies, body and soul regain true serenity.

Nourish the spirit

Wei Qi Rituals take advantage of the close correlation between the sense of smell and the brain to reawaken sentiments and emotions.

Room fragrances (Souffles) and natural candles (Lumières) can reprogram the aromatic codes of your living space.

Their aromatic richness brings a specific positive message to your spirit.

A breeze scented with Nature.

Wonderful Wei Qi energy

The skin is the first of our organs, the most extensive, the most sensitive, and it is constantly traversed by a wonderful energy called Wei Qi.

By day, on the periphery of our body, it defends us. During the night, it returns inside to nourish the organs and viscera and aid recuperation of our energy and functions. This fantastic energy carries the quintessence of the plant extracts chosen for your Ritual into your innermost being
